N-Reactor Blows Up

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP)—A new-style nuclear reactor blew up Tuesday night, killed three men and touched off a high level of deadly radiation in a building at one of America's major atomic testing stations.

The Atomic Energy Commission quickly sealed off the area and said there was no danger to other parts of the station or Idaho Falls, a city of 34,000 persons 40 miles away.

Kennedy To Confer On Castro

By Marvin L. Arrowsmith

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—

President-elect John F. Kennedy flies to New York today to confer with his defense chief, Robert S. McNamara, against the critical background of broken Cuban-U.S. relations.

Plans for the Kennedy meeting with the secretary of defense designate were announced in advance of the Eisenhower administration's severing of diplomatic relations with the Fidel Castro regime. But that development Tuesday night seems almost certain to get prime attention.

The session also appears likely to deal in part with the tense situation in Communist-threatened Laos.

Kennedy, who during the campaign was critical of Republican handling of the Cuban problem, had no comment on President Eisenhower's order ending relations. The president-elect's press secretary, Pierre Salinger, said Kennedy was informed of the decision in advance.

Life Nearly Normal In Belgium Again

By FRED CHEVAL

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—

Government spokesmen claimed today that strike-torn Belgium is slowly returning to normal, but strikers called for new demonstrations against the government's austerity program.

Leaders of the Socialist-led General Workers' Federation summoned strikers to a rally after a morning attempt to close department stores collapsed before a show of police force.

Guarded by an iron ring of armored cars and state policemen, Parliament met to discuss the program of higher taxes and reduced welfare service that the government insists is necessary for survival.

The department store strike attempt was marked by scattered violence, and there were clashes elsewhere in Belgium.

Police chased several hundred pickets away from stores. The pickets, about 40 per cent of them women, walked meekly away.

Trouble broke out in Ghent. Police clashed with strikers who threw rocks at windows of two textile factories. Many teachers in Ghent struck and few children reported to school.

Police Administration Minister Pierre Harmel declared that despite the sporadic disorders, vital services were being restored.

Electric power stations are working again in seven of Belgium's nine provinces, he said, and trains are running to Italy and Switzerland and air traffic is normal.

A.F., Army Men

The three victims, identified only as an Air Force man and two Army men, were operating the reactor known as "Stationary Low Power Reactor No. 1." It is a prototype of a small mobile reactor being developed for use by the Army in remote areas.

The accident occurred at 9:30 p.m. The three men killed were the only ones in the building. At least 60 are on duty there in the daytime.

It was the first fatal accident in 11 years of operation at the National Reactor Testing Station, a major AEC installation.

It may be weeks before the AEC knows exactly what happened. But a spokesman said it apparently was a chemical explosion.

About 4,500 permanent employees work at the station west of here and the AEC said it planned no changes in their schedules today.

First Sub Engine

The engine for America's first atomic submarine was developed at the site and tests are now being conducted there on a variety of projects, including the power plant for an atomic airplane.

The radiological crew members who entered the metal building pieced together this picture of the explosion:

The experimental reactor, being developed as a portable source of electric power and heat for the armed forces, apparently "blew its top."

The reactor and the boiling water in which it is immersed are housed in a metal shell which was not penetrated, is capped by a metal cover through which fuel and control rods run to reach the enriched uranium core of the reactor.

The AEC said any theories on the cause of the explosion would be purely guesswork pending the report of a group of investigators being flown from Washington, D.C.

APPROVE LOWER BUDGET FOR SOUTH VIET NAM

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Police today pressed a manhunt for a Negro who slashed to death a pretty young modeling student in her bedroom.

Donna Trussell, a cousin of 1960 Miss America Lynda Lee Mead, was slain just a few hours before she was to return to New York, where she was trying to launch an acting career. It was her 18th birthday.

Another cousin stumbled on the slaying Tuesday and fled in terror. Police later found Miss Trussell's nude body in her bedroom.

Her father said it "looked like a slaughterhouse."

The coroner's office said the girl died from multiple stab wounds of the chest, throat and abdomen.

Capt. Myron Weysham, homicide division chief, said the killer probably was scratched on the face or neck and cut on the right thumb.

Lynn Bullard, 25, cousin of Miss Trussell, said she dropped by to wish her a happy birthday and saw her struggling with a Negro.

She said she was no more than 10 feet from the death struggle. A TV set was knocked down and a heater pulled from the wall.

"Part of her clothes were off and she was lying on the floor," Miss Bullard said. "I didn't know what to do. I don't think he even saw me there was so much noise. I ran down the stairs and out to Allen."

By EDDY GILMORE

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—"In Belgium," said one of the strike-beset country's citizens, "no revolutions start after lunchtime."

That comment is borne out by the current Socialist demonstrations against the government's proposed austerity program of higher taxes and lower social benefits.

This capital city has erupted in violence three times in the past week.

Angry men have marched through the stately boulevards, shouting "to the gallows" with Prime Minister Gaston Eyskens.

Enough plate glass to fill the windows of 20 American main streets has been smashed.

Saber-wielding mounted policemen twice charged noisy mobs of demonstrators.

But everybody stopped for lunch.

Last Thursday, 15,000 strikers surged through the streets of this beautiful city. They hurled bricks, stones, and steel nuts and bolts at hundreds of plate glass windows.

Lunch On Time

About noon the demonstration dispersed and everybody went home to lunch. A conservative newspaper said most of them drove away in their own automobiles.

The next day 5,000 or so charged through the streets. Many of them knocked off when the clock on the ancient town hall sounded the hour for feeding.

Several thousand hadn't had enough. They surged up to the Sabena Airlines terminal and began pecking away at the inviting plate glass windows. Police charged. A man was shot and fatally wounded by a bystander who said he got excited.

The Scene Changes

The demonstration suddenly collapsed, and again everyone seemed to go home to lunch. A few hours later the cafes and bars near the scene of gunshot, blood and police saber charges were full of music and dancing couples.

Nobody ever comes back for battle after the midday meal.

"We're the bourgeoisie of the world," said one young man. "Examine our history. We revolted against the Dutch in 1830—but it was in broad daylight. And I'll bet you it was before lunch."

LITCHFIELD STORE DAMAGED BY FIRE

LITCHFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Fire gutted a downtown Litchfield department store Tuesday night, causing an estimated $50,000 damage.

Several customers and clerks were in the Fashion Lane store when the blaze broke out on a balcony but all escaped uninjured.

Regular and volunteer firemen from Litchfield and later Hillsboro, battled the blaze for nearly two hours before bringing it under control.

Fire Chief Jim Leitschuh made the damage estimate.

Pressure Test

The Russians are admittedly clever in building up pressures for a summit meeting. Early in 1961 we should learn whether they intend to attempt such a build-up against the Kennedy administration.

There are no positive signs yet, only some hints. Soviet leaders have frequently said they might like to negotiate with the new regime, even as they were assailing President Eisenhower. Since Kennedy's election, they have pointedly refrained from severe criticism of him.

How Kennedy as president reacts to any Soviet summit pressures will provide a key test of his whole approach to international diplomacy.

Though he is on record as favoring one more big effort to negotiate with the Kremlin, there is nothing to suggest that he intends to be railroaded into a summit session on Soviet terms. Plenty of things point the other way.

The President-elect often declared that he would consider going to the summit only if there were adequate preparation and reasonable evidence that genuine progress could be made.

His choice of Dean Rusk as secretary of state seems to underscore a cautious attitude toward the summit. Rusk favors more traditional diplomacy at the ambassadorial level, and asserts that constant looking to the summit can be like a habit-forming drug.

Furthermore, both men are well aware that Eisenhower long shared their reserved approach but allowed himself to be talked out of it last spring, with somewhat disastrous consequences at Paris. The new government will be eager to avoid another such trap.

If the Soviet summit pressure comes and Kennedy resists it, then he will have to deal with the reactions of those both here and abroad to whom the idea of the summit is already like a drug.

These are people who, wishing earnestly for peace as we all do, yet imagine that it can be accomplished by some swift, dramatic stroke at the bargaining table. Their hope really represents a yearning for the simpler days that are past, and an unwillingness to face the stubborn complexities of the 60s.

Should the situation develop, it would provide Kennedy with still another test of his mettle. It is one thing to say "no" to a summit. It is another to demonstrate persuasively that such a refusal is completely consistent with total dedication to the goals of peace and justice.

What Khrushchev does about the summit may help Kennedy to see more quickly the size and shape of his burdens in 1961.

"It Won't Be Long—the Child Moves Violently Now"

In Hollywood

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Will 1961 be the year of decision for Hollywood and its apparent determination to make movies more adult than ever?

High industry sources talk officially in cliché-coated denials. But unofficially they are seriously worried about charges of the Roman Catholic bishops and influential Protestant and Jewish clergymen.

One top studio executive sees 1961 as the most critical period in Hollywood since the early 20s when the Puffy Arbuckle scandal almost killed off the then infant industry.

"The shock appeal of such raw films as 'Butterfield 8' and 'The Apartment' have brought millions at the boxoffice, and now we have 'Lolita' with us," he says.

The producer isn't against sex per se but believes that Hollywood has tilted its accent on adultery, homosexuality, dope and other frank sexual themes.

"These are adult themes, but go to a movie house and try to find adults. The theaters are filled with impressionable teenagers. They're the bulk of the audience."

The executive started in the business as a theater owner and recounts a personal experience. "My theater did a nice business on family pictures such as 'Andy Hardy' and the like. Then one day we got greedy and bought a shocking exploitation picture on marijuana. It did double the business our family pictures had done, so we booked more of the same."

"It didn't take long for the shock appeal to wear off. Business dropped to nothing. Even worse, our cashier quit because her pastor had asked her to. We soon found that it became a major crisis just to hire a popcorn girl. Nice girls just didn't want to work for us."

"Finally, we lost so much money that we boarded up the theater—and last I heard it was still boarded up."

"Hollywood," says another executive, "is a cash register factory, not an art museum. We only give the public what it wants. If our pictures aren't good for kids, then it's up to the parents to keep their kids away from them."

He Took His Reward In Measure of a Smile

By JERRY BENNETT

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Chicago lawyer and Democratic wheelhorse Hy Raskin gave his customary performance of invaluable aid during the Kennedy campaign, and so in time was called in by the president-elect to see what job he wanted in the new administration.

Raskin had served in Washington before and replied that maybe he didn't want any job in the government. He was happy practicing law in the Windy City.

Kennedy told him the story of Baron Rothschild, the European master of finance who wanted to reward a faithful aide for valuable services. "Anything within my power," said the Baron.

But the aide said he wanted only one small favor. "Put your arm around my shoulder," he asked, "and walk with me through your bank."

Thereupon Kennedy escorted Raskin to the door of his Georgetown house, smiled upon him and they were photographed by the press. The picture was printed in a Chicago paper next day, and Raskin had his reward.

A capital promoter came up with this ingenious scheme for smuggling Christmas booze to reporters prohibited from accepting gifts from business firms.

He disguised the bottles by hiding them inside hollowed-out loaves of bread.

A Democratic wisecrack on GOP efforts to change the presidential election result is that GOP's national committee chairman

Thurston B. Morton campaigned harder for Nixon to win the presidency after the election than he did before.

Government workers are laughing about what they call "holiday reading suggestions" of the U.S. Government Printing Office. Listed in the latest GPO publications catalog, headed "Season's Greetings," are these two pamphlets:

"The European Earwig—How to Control It Around the Home," and "Screw Thread Standards for Federal Services."

Care and feeding of dachshunds has become a top priority project for the front office of the Air Force's air research and development command.

Major Gen. James Fergusson, ARDC, vice commander, his aide Capt. Stephen Hicks, and his secretary, Mrs. Charlotte Reed, are all proud owners of the wicker-shaped German dogs. Fergusson has two.

"But don't get the idea that Charlotte and I are just parroting the boss," says Hicks. "We have owned dachshunds for years. The general didn't get his until last summer."

Confederate Gen. Robert E. Lee's surrender at Appomattox Court House was actually a comedy of errors, according to Civil War buff James L. Jessup, vice president of Trailways Bus Co.

At the company's annual Christmas party, Jessup told guests: "General Lee was resting at the Court House before mapping out the strategy for his final campaign. In walked Gen. Grant, ready to surrender."

"Grant was such an inconspicuous looking man that Lee took him for his orderly. Naturally, Lee gave Grant his sword to polish."

"Grant, very much surprised, took Lee's sword and actually thought that Lee had surrendered. He even thanked Lee for surrendering, and Lee, being a true Southern gentleman, couldn't go back on his word."

Our Victorian Hangover Still Dictates Actions

MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Dear Mrs. Lawrence:

Our 16-year-old boy's Saturday morning chore is cleaning the cellar. Every Saturday morning his father and he have an argument about it. Late as I listen to my husband preach about how hard he works all week, I can't help feeling that he's more interested in making Jack do what he says than in getting the cellar cleaned. But I don't dare say this. However, my husband reads your column and might listen to you.

ANSWER: "I find it impossible to get youths of 17 to help me plant potatoes or weed onions although the same boys will spend hours sipping up motor engines, washing cars or making radio sets."

"The truth began to dawn on me one day when I was digging my brother's garden in Scotland."

"I didn't enjoy the job and it suddenly came to me that what was wrong was that I was digging a garden that meant nothing to me. And my garden means nothing to the boys whereas their bikes and radios mean a lot."

This is a quotation from a new book "Summerhill," the name of the now world-famous school operated by A. S. Neill, the Scottish schoolmaster whose teaching methods began by horrifying British educational authorities and have ended by earning their respect as "fascinating and valuable."

I have something to add to the honest, experienced and thoughtful words of Neill.

We Americans still suffer from Victorian hangover. Like the Puritans, the Victorians believed in the Devil in the flesh. So they tried to subdue the Devil by punishing the flesh he inhabits.

Any protest in children was promptly beaten out of them. They enshrined women in crinolines to hide their devilish bodies.

In my great-grandfather's house you didn't laugh on Sundays but delighted the Lord who made the earth and the fullness thereof by drawing the shades against his sunshine.

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation will have three ex-presidents and three former vice presidents—but will probably find little or nothing for them to do—when Dwight D. Eisenhower steps out of the White House Jan. 20.

The three former presidents—Eisenhower, 70, Truman, 76, and Hoover, 86—have had vast governmental experience.

It has been argued the country could well use that experience. That's debatable.

President Kennedy almost certainly won't call on the three former presidents: Richard M. Nixon, 47; Henry Wallace, 72; and John Nance Garner, 92. His reasons in each case would be different.

Kennedy, a practical politician who may be looking for reelection in 1964, is not likely to build up the prestige of Nixon, who ran against him in 1960 and may run again.

Wallace, who served one term under President Roosevelt, has been unattractive to Democrats since he broke with them in 1948 to run on the Progressive ticket for president against Truman.

Garner, too old for strenuous activity, has been out of the political picture since 1941 when he retired to his Texas farm after two terms under Roosevelt.

Both Truman and Eisenhower used Hoover to head commissions for reorganizing the government. Both men got on well with him. But neither assignment required any advice from Hoover on broad White House problems.

Eisenhower not only made no use of Truman, who blasted him in the 1952 presidential campaign, but carefully avoided any contact with him.

Kennedy may ask Eisenhower to undertake some goodwill missions abroad. But he can hardly ask advice from the man whose two administrations he called inept.

It is doubtful, because of Hoover's advanced age, that Kennedy will want to burden him anymore.

As for Truman—Kennedy has no particular reason to love the man from Missouri.

Truman rooted for him in the later stages of the 1960 campaign. But the former president tried to wreck Kennedy's White House chances before the Democratic convention.

Experience Valuable
Still there's the question: Shouldn't some way be found to use the experience of ex-presidents? There has been a suggestion that they should automatically become Senators.

They would have no vote but could speak their minds since they would have insight into government without the experience of no senator could match.

Nothing ever came of this notion.

There are arguments on the other side: that when a man becomes an ex-president the nation should thank him for his services but say goodbye to his opinion.

By putting a two-term limit on the presidency, the nation has shown it wants a limit on the guidance of any one man.

Further, an ex-president may be and probably is, miles apart from the new president's thinking.

It is questionable whether an ex-president, generally well along in years before he steps out, is still flexible enough to change a lifetime's thinking to meet situations different from those he encountered.

matter of FACT

Our grim-faced TV cowboys would no more break into song than wear lace pants. But home-made music was one of the rare pleasures of the old West. Cowboys liked to give old tunes new words to fit their own outfit or section. You'd hear 30 different versions of a song between Idaho and Texas.

Doctor's Readers Speak Out On Cat Scratch Fever

By Harold Thomas Hyman, M.D.
Written For NEA

My wife warned me that I'd get in trouble if I did a column on cat scratch fever. "You know how some people are about cats," she said. "You'd better watch your step or you'll get scratched by your readers." She was right.

"I am a member of the American Feline Society and I'm forwarding your article to the president of the society," writes a highly indignant Kentuckian. "Why do you attack cats? There's bird fever and dogs that bite children and adults. From the daily papers they do more harm than cat scratch."

"I doubt if you have as many friends as cats have," the letter continues. "And I wonder if your picture would rate a thousand dollars (as did the picture of a prize kitten, stapled to the letter)."

"It seems to me from your article that because cats are popular and being cared for a little more you want to write something adverse about them. When you attack cats, you are attacking many people. There is a lot of cat food sold."

"I have played with cats since I was a baby . . . and had some scratches . . . but never an infection. My husband often lets his special cat scratch his leg and knee . . . but the scratches never become infected. We do not believe that a cat's claw carries any disease or we would have been dead long ago and many other cat lovers I know would have passed on . . . The automobile is a killer."

Maybe you should get RID OF IT!"

Fortunately for my peace of mind, here's an excerpt from another letter that came in the same mail:

"How can we ever thank you for calling cat scratch fever to our attention?" writes an Iowa housewife.

"Our 6-year-old daughter developed a swollen gland in her groin. When our doctor said she'd have to go to the hospital to have it drained, I told him we had kittens that our children played with constantly."

"He promised to have some sort of examination made at the time of operation because someone at the university had become very much interested in the disease."

"Yesterday, he told us that the tests were positive and our little girl did have cat scratch fever."

"So we asked him to examine our 3-year-old who has an ugly looking scratch mark on his thigh and he found that the gland on the side of the scratch was larger and sorer to the touch than the gland on the other side."

"He said he couldn't be sure it would come to the same thing as sister's but he said he wanted to keep an eye on it."

"My husband and I decided we didn't want to wait for an answer so we just went out to get rid of the kittens. And he told me to be sure and write you before he came back and thank you for warning us."

So there you have both sides. Cats have their devoted friends. And children have parents.

American Menu

Chicken Dinner Is 'Split-Level' Dish

A COMPLETE meal can be prepared at one time in one container, using the capabilities of a Swedish steamer.

GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

A new Swedish steamer cooks a full course meal on two levels, on a single burner, with no mingling of food flavors, all ready to serve at the same time. Here's a "split-level" menu: "pot roasted" chicken, carrots, green beans, potatoes in jackets, and steamed pudding.

"Pot Roasted" Chicken (Serves 4)
1 (3½-pound) broiler-fryer chicken
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
½ teaspoon salt
Ground black pepper
2 tablespoons butter or margarine

1 cup chicken stock OR
1 bouillon cube dissolved in 1 cup boiling water
3 large carrots
½ pound green beans
6 small potatoes
Large lettuce leaves for split-level cooking

Wash and dry whole chicken; brush inside with melted fat. Season. Tie the tips of wings onto back of bird. Brush skin with melted fat. Melt 2 tablespoons fat in steamers' base pot; add chicken and brown. Remove; place a small rack in base pot and replace chicken; add chicken stock and bring to boil.

Meanwhile prepare pudding and place in covered mold. When liquid in base pot boils, place a few clean lettuce leaves over chicken to cover completely and float on top. Reduce heat. Place in-set pot with pudding in mold over base pot. Cover, and simmer for 1 hour. Meanwhile, prepare vegetables for steaming; set aside.

After one hour's simmering, remove in-set pot. Place carrots and beans next to chicken (under lettuce leaves) in base pot. Place in-set pot over base pot. Put potatoes around pudding mold; cover. Continue cooking for about 30 minutes or until potatoes are tender.

To serve: remove pudding mold first, then chicken, then carrots and beans. Serve peeled potatoes in separate dish. Serve pot liquid in separate dish or pour over chicken.

Farmers State Bank Celebrates Golden Anniversary Today

The Farmers State Bank and Trust Company joins the ranks of the few businesses in the Jacksonville area who have served their customers for 50 years or more. This bank which provides modern, up-to-date conveniences for its customers, today marks its golden anniversary of service in Jacksonville.

Beginning their banking operations in temporary quarters in room 231 on West State street in December of 1910, the enterprise was moved to a permanent location on the south side of the square upon completion of remodeling work. The bank was moved to its present location on the west side of the square in the late 1930's. The new drive-in bank was opened in late December of 1958 as a convenience for customer banking.

Minutes of the first stockholders' meeting were revealed in the Jacksonville Journal Sunday, Dec. 11, 1910. They are reprinted as they appeared 50 years ago when the bank was organized. Farmer's State Bank was one of six banks in Jacksonville at the time of organization.

First Stockholders' Meeting
"The first meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers' State Bank and Trust company was held at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, Dec. 11, 1910 at their temporary headquarters at 231 West State St. Richard W. Strawn acted as chairman of the meeting and Frank J. Heintz as secretary."

The first business disposed of was the election of directors and the following were chosen — Charles S. Black, W. S. Rice, A. L. French, D. Rees Browning, Frank J. Heintz, A. C. Rice, A. H. Crum, C. F. Leach and C. R. French. Various matters relating to the welfare of the new bank were discussed and immediately after the adjournment of the stockholders the directors held their meeting and elected the following officers — President, Arthur L. French; vice president, D. R. Browning; cashier, Frank J. Heintz.

The officers of the bank already have their desks at the temporary location and will have it as their office pending the arrival of the safes which are expected before the close of the coming month. Meanwhile temporary fixtures will be put in and before many days the new bank will be ready for business. No effort will be made to make the temporary location "handsome" in the furnishings, but the purpose is to fit it up so business can be transacted with a fair amount of convenience. When removal is made to the permanent bank home on the south side in the room now occupied by the Hopper Shoe store efforts will be made to have one of the handsomest bank interiors in the state.

New Bank Employees
Miss Ruth Waggoner and Charles H. Walker, who recently resigned positions in the Ayrers National bank, will accept similar ones with the Farmers State Bank & Trust Co. when that institution opens for business the latter part of the present month. Miss Waggoner will be stenographer and Mr. Walker collector.

DOUBLE-JOINTED — Amphibious truck raises its right wheels to clear a big log in Portland, Ore., where the strange vehicle was invented by Elmer A. Wagner, a tractor manufacturer. Each of the wheels can be swung in a 360-degree arc. A propeller in rear drives it through water. Wagner says it can be used in the military, construction work, survey and exploration projects and hilly farming.

Series Of Wrecks In Jersey County

JERSEYVILLE — Several traffic accidents in the Jersey county area were reported during the New Year Holiday weekend by state police.

Saturday at 7:27 p.m. a car driven by Henry I. Jones of Carrollton figured in an accident with one operated by Merle F. Newlin, 1911 Elby Street, Alton, on Route 67A one mile north of Jerseyville.

Jones was accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Grace Jones and Newlin was accompanied by Dale Ontis, 818 Arch Street, Alton, owner of the second vehicle.

According to reports of state troopers, the car of Jones entered onto the highway into the path of the oncoming vehicle operated by Merle F. Newlin driving south on Route 67A. Both vehicles were demolished by the impact. Henry and Grace Jones were removed from the site of the accident by Jacoby Brothers ambulance to the Boyd Memorial Hospital in Carrollton. They were admitted as patients.

Treated For Cuts
Dale Ontis was removed to the Jerseyville Community Hospital in a Jacoby ambulance. He received treatment there for laceration of the right knee and was later released.

State Troopers Rutger Peters Jr., of Hardin and Sioke Blackbody of Jerseyville handled the traffic situation at the wreck. An arrest ticket charging Right of Way Violation was issued by Trooper Peters to Henry

I. Jones. The latter is slated to appear in court January 10th.

A head on collision between cars driven by Noel Rister of Elmhurst and Albert K. Alexander of the Delhi vicinity occurred about 8:45 p.m. on Route 67A one half mile north of Jersey, Madison county line.

Suffers Scalp Injury
Miss Shortal and Rister were brought to the Jersey Community Hospital where they were treated for lacerations and later released. Miss Shortal suffered a scalp laceration requiring sutures and Rister sustained a laceration of the right knee requiring sutures.

Trooper Arthur Edward Kahl attended traffic at the accident site. He placed Alexander under arrest and brought him to the county jail where he was arraigned Sunday morning on a charge of Operating A Motor Vehicle in the Wrong Lane. Alexander was found guilty in a trial by the court before Justice A. Thatcher and a fine of one hundred dollars and costs was assessed. In default of payment of the fine, Alexander was remanded to the county jail to lay out his penalty.

Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—The once-lively shoe business is rising into money these days.

Increasing polish sales could be traced to more elbow grease at home as families pare budgets in uncertain times. But much could be due to hard competition causing manufacturers to scramble for the home market with new ideas in polishes and easier applications.

Sales volume has risen from $30 million a year at the end of World War II to more than $85 million a year now.

New ideas aimed at beefing up this market include spray-on or aerosol jobs, flow-on polishes using the principle of the fountain pen, and pastes without the usual odor associated with freshly shined shoes.

Also there are electric polishing machines for home or public places to renew the glow and make people appearance-conscious. In recent years new ingredients or combinations have been aimed at increasing the shine, treating the leather, restoring color and gloss to worn and scuffed shoes, lengthening the duration of the shine.

The first modern polishes were of the solvent type, with beeswax and paraffin as the main solids, diluted with turpentine.

World War II saw U.S. servicemen discovering what an Australian-born paste did in giving a high glow and restored color to scuffed shoes.

Manufacturers say sales today divide into three main areas with pastes first, followed closely by dye-type liquids and by creams and trailed by whites. There are also suede cleaners, leather renewers, oils and greases, impregnated cloths, shoemaker's wax and saddle soap cleaners.

S. C. Johnson & Son, Racine, Wis., maker of wax, has just entered the field with three liquid polishes and one compact paste kit. The liquids come in plastic squeeze bottles which work like a fountain pen when turned upside down.

One of the established leaders in the field, the Esquire division of Knomark, Inc., reports its sales jumped 22 per cent in the last three months after introduction of its odorless paste polish.

Some of the sales, it says, may be due to women who have been using it to stain unfinished furniture.

Like the American division of the Australian-born Kiwi, Esquire has made its major growth here since World War II with an emphasis on high gloss. Esquire now gets 44 per cent of its sales in food stores, where it says women make 75 per cent of the shoe polish purchases.

Among other makers are Griffin, Shinola, 2-in-1, Bixby's Jet Oil, Dress Parade, and Whittemore Brothers.

This being an age of research into who does what, a survey of home habits was inevitable.

One manufacturer says it found that in the strongholds of togetherness the polishing chore is divided fairly equally, but with children doing a bit more sprucing up than do fathers, and mothers taking on about one-fourth of the total job.

PIERCING PRACTICE

RED BANK, N.J. (AP)—The age-old practice of piercing earlobes for earrings is being modernized according to Jeweler Paul Seldin.

The old method was to force a probe through the flesh to a cork held on the other side of the lobe. But this painful system has been replaced by a spring-loaded device which, Seldin says, "permits greater accuracy and doesn't hurt a bit."

Through the centuries people have had their ears pierced for a number of reasons—to improve eyesight, guarantee good hearing, and ward off the evil eye. But the best reason, Seldin said, is insurance. "If you buy a pair of earrings for $1000, you don't want them to fall off."

Seven Head Of Angus Drown As Pond Ice Cracks

JERSEVILLE—Farmers in the Jersey and Calhoun county area have been losing cattle this winter in numbers larger than customary, but a checkup indicates that mucky feeds may have been the cause in a number of cases.

One of the greatest losses suffered by a livestock raiser this season was that sustained by Gilbert Clendenny of the vicinity of Moxier in Calhoun county.

Seven head of prime black Angus cattle were drowned in a pond on the Clendenny premises the past week. The pond froze over during the recent zero weather in the locality and the cattle went onto the ice in search of an opening to obtain water to drink. They went down through the ice, apparently as a drove rather than one at a time. The bodies of the animals were dragged from the pond by using a caterpillar tractor. Tom Long of Jerseyville who operates a dead animal disposal service went to Moxier and hauled the cattle away.

They cut across the east end of the J B pasture. It's maybe 75 miles to Mobettie," said Arrington. "It would be easier if you would give me your parole."

"All right," said Bart. "But when we get to Mobettie you'll have to look out for yourself."

Arrington nodded. "I'm used to that."

They pulled up at a small ranch yard filled with yapping in the early afternoon. A long, gawky man with straggling mustaches and a battered, rain-beaten old farmer's hat came up from the corral. "Light," he said, "and make yourselves to home. I'll have the girl put some coffee on."

He disappeared inside the poor house.

"Like Logan," said Arrington. "Hate to drink his coffee. He might not have any more. Wife died last winter with TB. Left him about a dozen kids. The oldest girl runs the place for him. Does the best she can."

They went inside to get out of the hot sun. The house was sparsely furnished, but neat enough except for kids every where like chickens at feeding time. Ike's daughter was about 14, brown-haired, wild-looking with her hair over her eyes, although she seemed to have washed it recently. She peered at them as if they were completely strange beings, and did not say a word as she poured coffee out of a battered old graniteware pot that was too heavy for her frail arms.

Ike Logan waved Arrington and Bart to the only two chairs, while he sat on the floor.

Arrington set down his coffee. "Jonas Myers tells me you

Tapen Couple

Of Carrollton

Wed 50 Years

CARROLLTON, Mr. and Mrs. Lucas Tapen will observe their fiftieth wedding anniversary with Open House from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday January 8 at the Knights of Columbus hall in Carrollton. The Open House will be preceded by a carry in dinner for the members of the immediate family.

Miss Mary Koster, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Koster, and Lucas tapen, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lucas Tapen stomped me."

Murphy grinned and saw Arrington. "Cap'n Arrington himself," he said. "Big haul."

"Look, Murphy," said Arrington, "you got into the wrong race. Say your piece and get out."

Murphy raised his eyebrows. "There's nothing you can do to me, Captain. I ain't broken any law. Leastways, you ain't caught me at it."

"I got to be a captain in the Rangers by slapping 'id eggs like you."

"Now, Captain, don't get excited."

Logan nodded at Hepzibah, who set a full tin cup on the table. Murphy sat down, his eyes on the thin girl, who turned her face the other way.

Murphy looked sure of himself. "I just come to deliver a warning to Logan."

Logan choked. "A warning?" he asked in a whiny voice.

"I want you to know us men from Tascosa ain't standing by and letting an imitation court and a two-bit judge railroad our men to the penitentiary on the say-so of the Stock Raisers' Association."

"You're in contempt of court," said Arrington.

"Not yet I ain't—because there ain't no court."

"There was a court the moment the law went into effect," said Arrington.

Murphy looked at him for a moment, but he did not goad Arrington further. "All right, Ranger." But he turned to Logan. "Just remember what I said, farmer. Mind which side of the fence you pick."

Murphy cast one leering glance at Hepzibah, and went out. They heard him swear, and then there was a solid thump, and a dog ran, yapping hoarsely.

HOW DUPLICATE PLAY DIFFERS

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

A rubber bridge player is only concerned with his partner and his opponents. A duplicate player has to consider everyone in the field.

Opening lead—♣ Q

At rubber bridge South would win the first club in his own hand; play the king and nine of spades with intention of finessing. West would show out and South would make exactly three no-trump. At duplicate, South would note that a lot of pairs would be in four spades, not three no-trump. Incidentally South should have raised spades instead of bidding no-trump.

The normal play at spades would be to ruff a club and then go after spades the same way. This line of play would produce five odd if West held the spade queen and four odd the way the cards actually are.

Now, how should South play this three no-trump in duplicate? He should win the first club in dummy; lead the jack of spades and let it ride. Now he will wind up making four no-trump for an exceptionally good score.

Of course, if West held the queen of spades South would get a bottom, but give West the queen of spades and South wasn't going to do well anyway.

SEAMAN 3C JACKSON

Seaman 3C Lonnie Jackson, son of Mrs. Essie Jackson, 514 South West street, was home for the holidays, and left Jan. 2 for Norfolk, Va., where he will be on ship duty. His ship is scheduled for a cruise to the Mediterranean in the near future.

Jackson has served as a member of the Crash Fire and Rescue crew since Mar. 29, 1959. During this period he has worked as turret operator, hose and rescue fireman, and acting section leader.

A citation issued by his commanding officer recently said "his ability as a crash firefighter and skill in the proper operation of crash equipment has at all times been highly satisfactory. Because of his gentlemanly manner, spirit of cooperation, and his willingness to work under adverse conditions, I consider it a real pleasure to recommend him most highly."

Seaman 3C Jackson graduated from Jacksonville High school in the class of 1959.

its headquarters studios with others in a remodeled meeting-hall building.

Now, however, CBS wants to bring under one roof seven studios and complete production facilities. If the plan goes through, the new building would be finished in 1964.

At least this indicates the CBS still plans to produce shows in New York. And, perhaps, if New York's production facilities reach a point where they are on a par with those of Hollywood, we might be treated to a return of those stimulating, live dramas which were once New York's TV specialty.

Interpreting The News

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst

One of the first jobs for John J. McCloy and his "department of disarmament" will be to devise a decisive test of Soviet intentions with regard to a ban on nuclear testing.

At the moment, the Soviet Union has achieved what she wanted—a ban without provisions for enforcement. A considerable section of expert opinion suspects that she is taking advantage of it to develop new weapons while the United States stands still.

President-elect John F. Kennedy has virtually promised that, while a major effort will be made to obtain an agreement fair to both sides, this situation will not be allowed to continue beyond a reasonable time—and considering the long-continued evasions already, a reasonable time could only be a short time.

And there is no prospect that, in a short time, the Communists will emerge sufficiently from their primitive attitude toward foreign inspection to make an agreement possible.

The new emphasis which the Kennedy administration is prepared to give this problem, along with the whole idea of disarmament, is perhaps the best propaganda which the United States is now prepared to make abroad.

Fear of the mounting arms race is almost universal. The Soviet Union, despite her weaseling when the chips are down, has made a considerable impression throughout the world just by harping on the subject for the last 15 years.

Even if Kennedy should give McCloy a thousand highly talented researchers, of course, it wouldn't mean any agreements unless they produced plans which would give the Soviet Union an advantage—for the Soviets will accept no other.

The new Communist manifesto establishes a maxim by which Western diplomats must now be governed, probably for years. There's bound to be something wrong with any Western move which the Communists like.

The greatest service of the new disarmament administration, therefore, will be to produce proposals which are so fair as to be unmistakably sincere, and which in their refusal will lay bare at every opportunity the Communist intention to retain the use of force as an ultimate weapon in case of failure of their cold war. This intention is stated clearly in the manifesto. The world will not understand the full meaning of the long years of conflict ahead unless it is borne in mind at every turn.

UNSTICKING PAINLESSLY

GREENVILLE, N. C. (AP)—Dr. Lucille H. Charles calls her technique for painless removal of adhesive tape "not in speedily pulling the tape away from the patient, but rather slowly removing the patient from the tape."

Dr. Charles, an English professor at East Carolina College, has had her technique reprinted in many national magazines and newspapers. It goes like this: "With the thumb and the index finger of one hand gently lift a corner of the adhesive tape. With the fingers of the other hand, gently and slowly press the skin that is just beneath the tape, away from the tape and toward the center of the dressing or bandage. Continue the process until the adhesive has been entirely removed."

JAPANESE SWORDMAKING

The sword has mystic religious meanings to many Japanese. One of these sacred Shinto treasures handed down from the Sun Goddess to Japanese emperors — enshrined today in the Atsuta Shrine near Nagoya — is, according to mythology, the "sword of heaven's clouds."

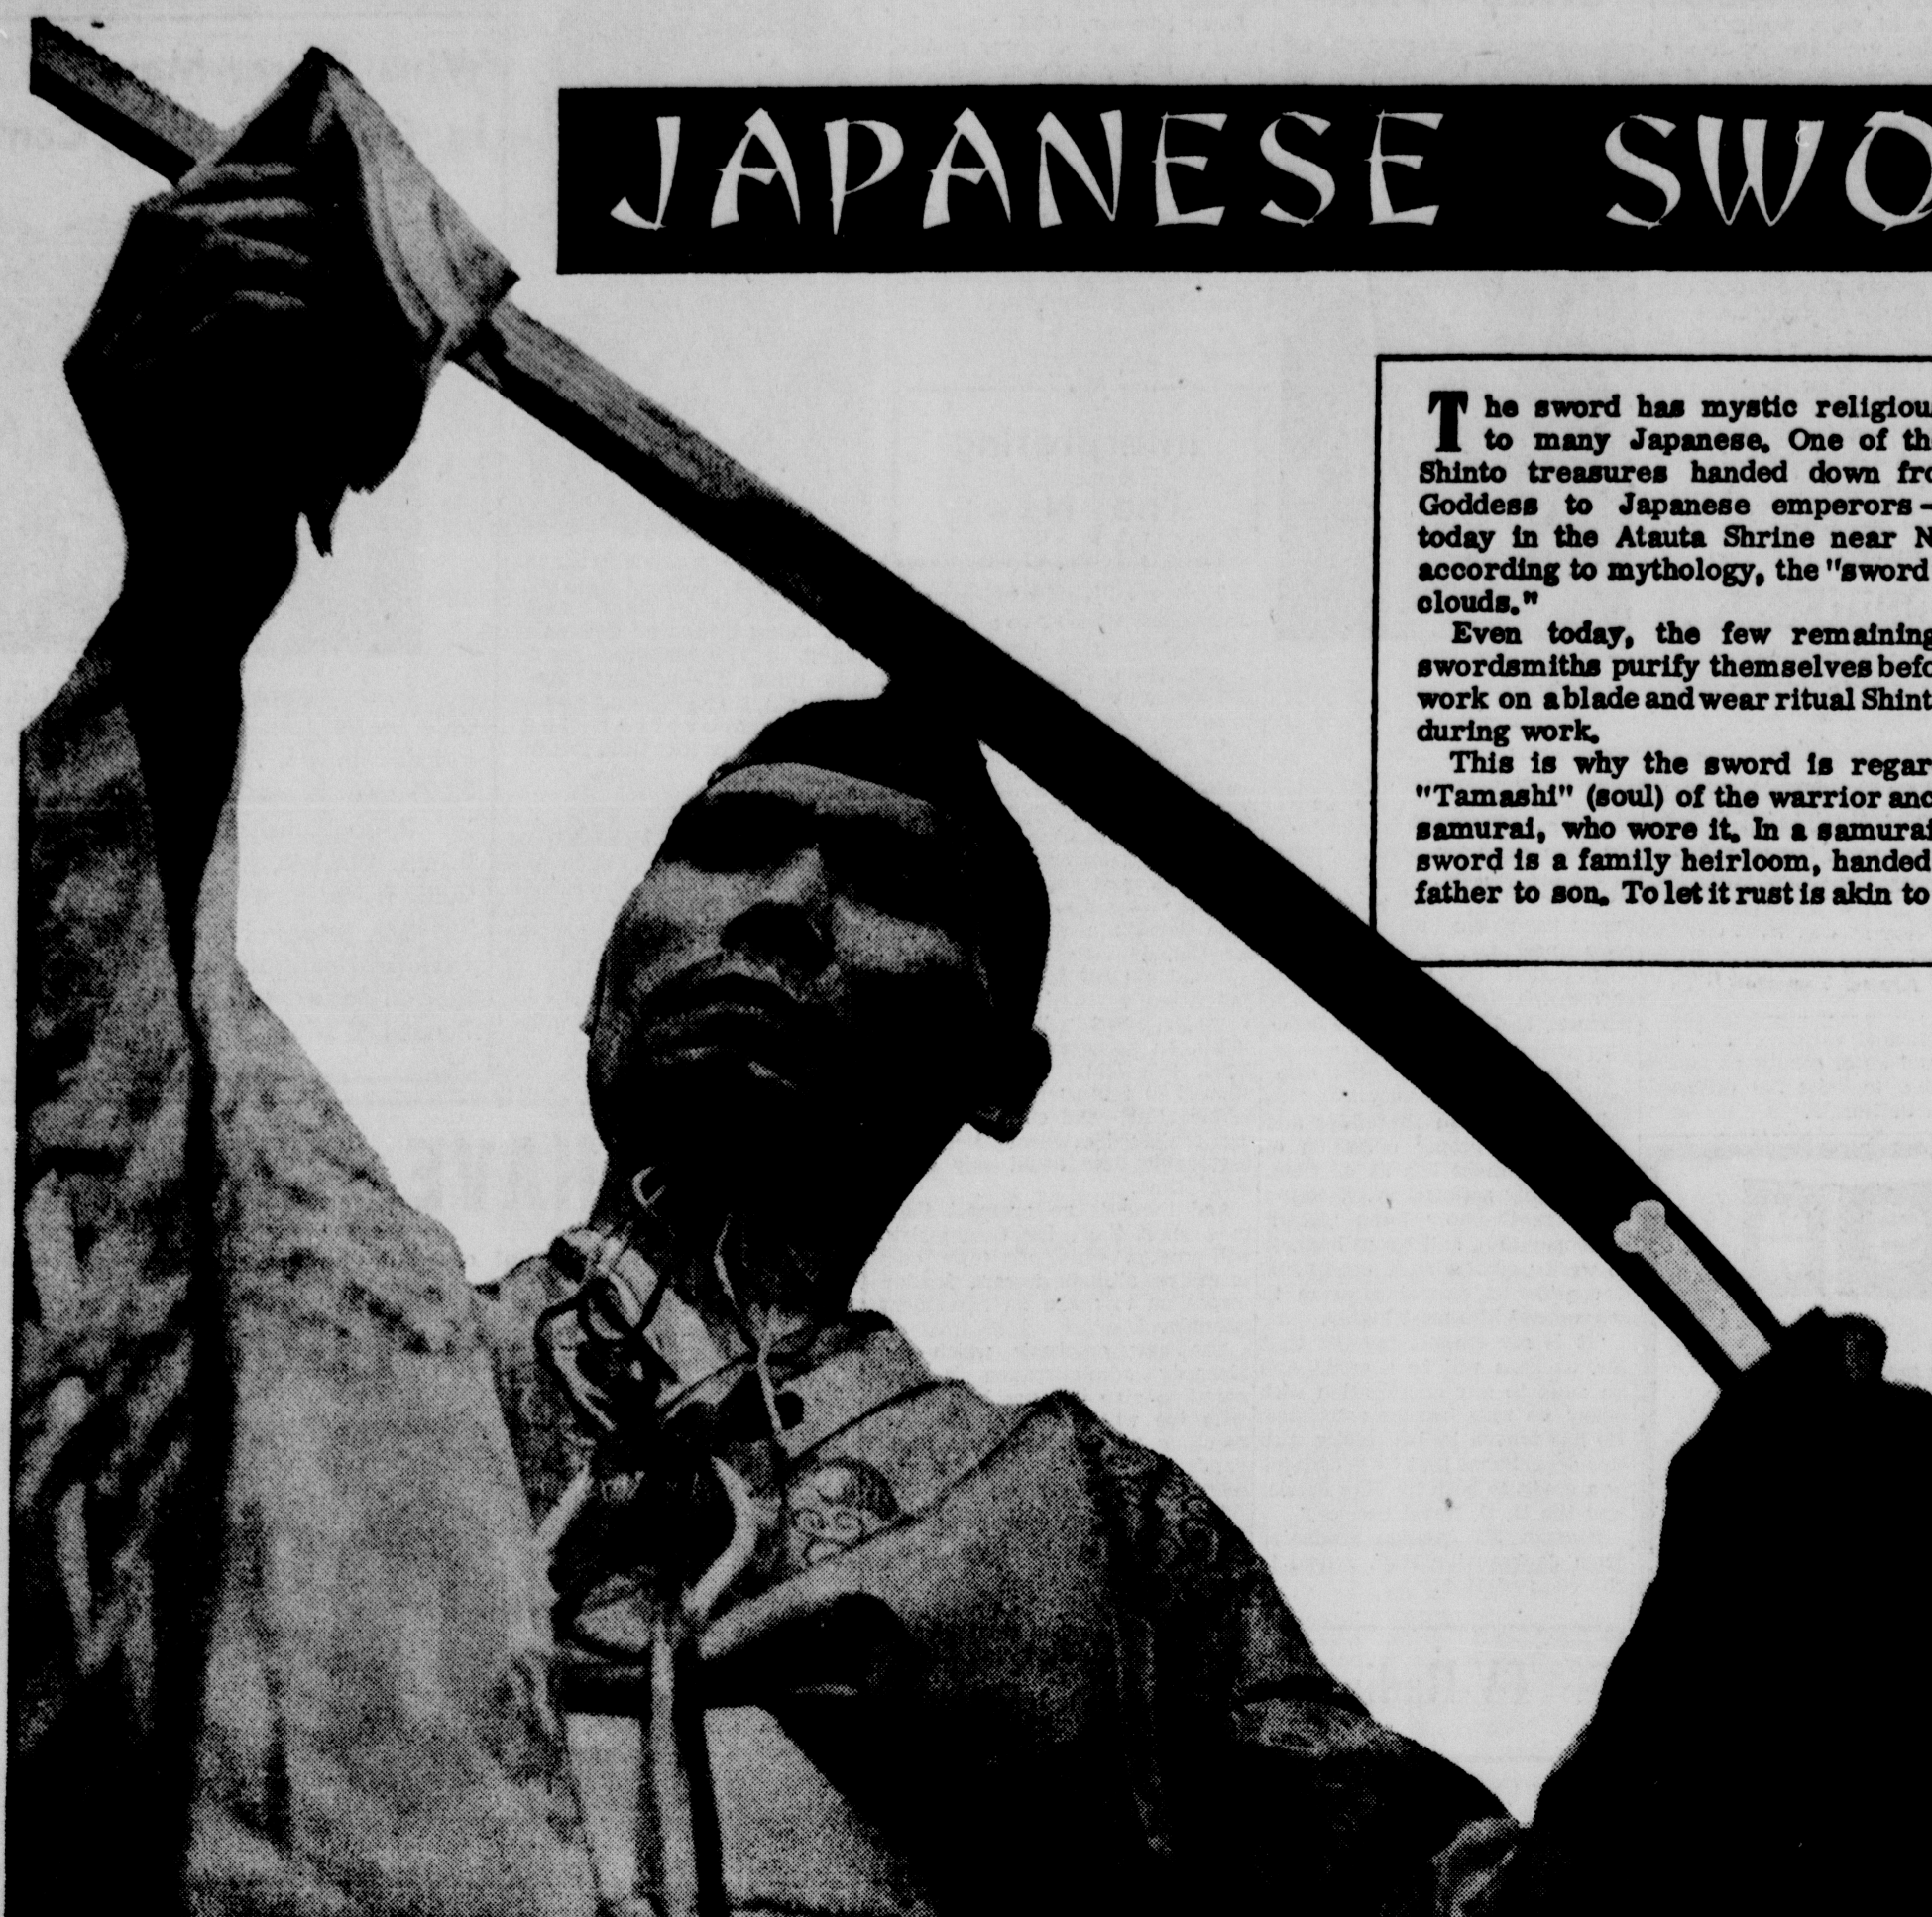

Even today, the few remaining Japanese swordsmiths purify themselves before starting work on a blade and wear ritual Shinto garments during work.

This is why the sword is regarded as the "Tamashi" (soul) of the warrior ancestors, the samurai, who wore it. In a samurai home, the sword is a family heirloom, handed down from father to son. To let it rust is akin to sacrilege.

Some swords are considered objects of reverence in Japanese shrines.

Thousands of Japanese swords had been collected by American servicemen during the occupation and brought back to the United States as souvenirs. Most were lowly regarded ones, mass produced by Japanese and Manchurian steel mills during the war. A few hundred are rare swords produced by master swordsmiths. Forty two are considered "national treasures" by the Japanese government. Junzo Sato, a former Japanese diplomat, has started a quest for the 42, hoping that they can be returned to Japan.

A master Japanese swordsmith proudly lifts his finished blade for a better look. He's wearing his ritual Shinto garments.

From these pieces of iron ore, in foreground, the swordsmith will fashion his blade.

The devout swordsmiths, in their Shinto garb, pray before starting work.

After removing the blade from the forge in their Tokyo workshop, Kanji Matsumura and Takeshi Yakuwa hammer it into shape.

One swordsmith tempers the sword while the other watches.

They apply the finishing touches after which they will both incise their names on the sword.

Their work is done, and the swordsmiths proudly give their blade a final inspection.

Indignities Far Beyond Self Respect

ington's forbearance policy was Castro's demand, delivered to the U.S. Embassy in Havana early Tuesday that all but 11 of the U.S. diplomats get out of Cuba within 48 hours.

Seen As Insult
American authorities from Eisenhower down saw this as a calculated insult. They figured the U.S. Embassy could hardly operate with only 11 men—fewer than the number of guards alone needed for the 10-story embassy building.

Repercussions spread widely from the break-off.

Embassy Leaves
In Havana the ranking U.S. diplomat, Charge d'Affaires Daniel J. Braddock, and his staff of 87 packed up for a fast exit. Many were boarding a ferry sailing today for Tampa, Fla. Future U.S. diplomatic business will be handled over to the Swiss mission.

Cuban diplomats in this country likewise were under expulsion because of the break. State Department officials said these totaled about 100, including about 10 at the Cuban Embassy in Washington and 10 at 13 Cuban consulates in other cities throughout the United States.

Castro named the Communist Czechoslovak Embassy to handle future Cuban dealings in Washington.

Kennedy To Confer On Castro

Kennedy got the word from the man who will be his secretary of state, Dean Rusk. Rusk has been maintaining close liaison with the State Department on both the Cuban and the Laotian situations.

Naval Base Worries
An aspect of the Cuban crisis likely to concern Kennedy and McNamara is the future of the big and strategically important American naval base at Guantanamo in Cuba. In Washington Tuesday night, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty declined to answer questions about the base.

In the campaign last year, Kennedy called at one point for a U.S. pledge of aid to anti-Castro forces, within and outside of Cuba. Republicans assailed this as dangerous and irresponsible. Kennedy said he had not meant intervention, only moral support.

The president-elect, ending a Palm Beach stay which began Dec. 16, arranged a mid-afternoon departure aboard a regularly scheduled airline jet.

In advance of the trip north, Kennedy filled two more Defense Department positions.

New Defense Counsel
He announced today the appointment of Cyrus Roberts Vance as the department's general counsel. Vance, 43, a Democrat, is a New York lawyer who served in 1957-60 as special counsel to a Senate Preparedness Investigating subcommittee which looked into the satellite and missile programs and held hearings on the defense and space programs generally.

Vance also was consulting counsel to the special Senate Committee on the National Space Act in 1958.

New Financial Officer
Kennedy Tuesday night chose economist Charles J. Hitch of Pacific Palisades, Calif., to be the Pentagon's chief financial officer. Hitch, a Democrat who will be 50 next Tuesday, will serve as an assistant secretary of defense and will supervise preparation of the huge military spending budget—about 40 billion dollars a year, more than half the federal government's total annual expenditure.

Hitch now is chairman of the Rand Corporation at Santa Monica, Calif., an organization which specializes in national security research.

Affect Other Relations
MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Here's how the U.S. diplomatic break with Cuba will affect other relations between the two countries:

Communications: "We have no notice to halt telephone calls, in either direction, and we'll continue on the present basis," said Mead B. Ferris, divisional traffic manager for Southern Bell Telephone Co.

Transportation: Pan American World Airways said it would add one flight to its regular two daily flights to Cuba "because reservations show there will be a need for it." National Airlines, which makes three weekend flights only, said it was undecided whether it would continue service.

Finance: "The break will mean little to the banks," said Comer Kimball, president of the First National Bank of Miami.

Government Affairs: All 12 Cuban embassies and consulates in this country will close.

Mail: Letters and packages travel between the United States and Cuba under the Pan American Union agreement and it is the practice for countries to continue an exchange even if diplomatic relations are broken.

Refugees: "It is impossible to tell at this early hour what our Immigration Service attitude will be toward refugees fleeing Cuba," said Edward W. Ahrens, regional director.

Trade: The flow of truck farm produce from Cuba to the United States will be a first to suffer. United States ships have been carrying Cuban crops, according to Joseph Fortie, supervising U.S. customs agent, and they "will not take the chance because they have no protection in Cuban ports."

Hollywood Bliss Darkened By Divorce Clouds

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Hollywood marriages, seldom ranked alongside Gibraltar as symbols of durability, will be about as turbulent as ever in 1961, if events of the new year are any indication.

Tuesday alone, three well known entertainment figures were involved in divorce actions.

Actress Joan Fontaine divorced film producer Collier Young after testifying "he drank a very great deal, was not warm or affectionate or attentive."

Miss Fontaine, 43, and Young, 52, married in 1952. Both had been married twice previously—she to actor Brian Aherne and producer William Dozier, and Young to actress Valerie Young and Ida Lupino.

Singer Margaret Whiting, 35, separated for a year from John Richard Moore, sued him for divorce in Santa Monica, Moore, 34, executive of a motion picture equipment company, is charged with cruelty. The couple married in 1958.

Also in Santa Monica, singer Mel (the Velvet Fog) Torme's wife filed a cross-complaint to his petition for annulment or divorce. Phyllis Arlene Torme, 30, a former model, married the 35-year-old singer four years ago.

Torme, in his annual petition, said his divorce from a previous wife, actress Candy Torton, was invalid when he married Phyllis. He said Phyllis and another woman hit him on the head when he went home last week to pick up some personal effects. He asked that she be restrained from molesting him, and she asked the same thing in her complaint.

Laos Viewpoint:
Do Reds Want Another Korea?

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Western officials said today several days' inquiry has brought no evidence of a land invasion of Laos by Vietnamese forces from Communist North Viet Nam.

But these same officials declared a U.S.-Soviet showdown over Laos is closer than ever before. They expressed belief that compromise or restraint on the part of the big powers can still save Laos from becoming a battleground between communism and the West.

The big question, say top Western diplomats here, is how far the Soviets are prepared to go in supporting pro-Communist rebels defying the new pro-Western government of Premier Prince Boun Oum.

U.S. officials say the choice between an all-out war and a continued stalemate depends on the Soviet Union and whether it is prepared to risk another Korea to gain its ends in Laos.

Senator Douglas' Bill For Depressed Areas Gets Senate Priority

The Illinois Senator headed a task force set up last month by Kennedy to make recommendations on how to bring recovery to communities suffering from prolonged economic depression.

This group made numerous proposals but it was agreed passage of the Douglas bill would get top priority.

Proposed Provisions
The bill is to carry these main provisions:

—100 million in loan funds to build new plants in industrial areas.

—100 million in loans for plants in rural areas.

—100 million in loans for public facilities such as water systems needed to attract new industries.

—75 million in federal grants for public facilities in communities so hard hit that they could not repay loans.

—10 million for retraining of workers to qualify them for new jobs.

—4 1/2 million for technical assistance such as studies to determine the economic potential of a distressed area.

The principal new feature in the 1961 measure, as compared with past versions, will be a ceiling of 30 million on outlays under each of the three loans programs in the first year.

THE COLD MARKET Our Refrigerators, Freezers

By WARD CANNEL
AMANA, Iowa (NEA)—If you're still trying to make sense out of modern science, file this one in the folder marked Household News.

According to a just-finished survey of U.S. housewives and how they get along with their modern refrigerators and freezers:

The typical refrigerator is opened and closed 17,368 times per year (an average of 48 times per day). Most of these trips are made for eggs, butter and milk.

But, say the ladies, technological improvements like refrigerator egg trays are a mystery. Small eggs fall too far into the holes and get stuck. Large eggs topple out and break.

And even if they fit, some eggs are always left over. Modern science often puts 8 or 16 egg rests at the fingertips of housewives who buy their eggs by the dozen or dozen and a-half.

Milk, the biggest item in refrigerator traffic, suffers from the same ailment. The economical half-gallon container doesn't fit comfortably anywhere. In some models, the women said, the swing-out shelf they never use wastes enough space for four half-gallons.

Women with larger families complained there were plenty of compartments, but where could you refrigerate watermelon or a large fowl?

Butter storage, on the other hand, is perfect. Temperature control and space saving make it almost impossible for a woman to keep her thumb out of the butter each time she removes it from its compartment.

Now, this survey was conducted by a large refrigerator and freezer manufacturer in Amana and obviously housewives using their models were included.

"Perhaps," one executive said, "we will have to re-evaluate our thinking about design."

And so, perhaps, will the little woman. Because when it comes to managing a home freezer, guess who has cold egg on her face?

In a significant number of cases, the survey shows, the home freezer is kept at a frigid one-third of capacity. Only a rare family knows how to pay for its freezer with food savings.

The typical mismanaged freezer, the survey says, contains two quarts of ice cream, two dozen cans of frozen fruit juice, enough meat for one meal, one small fur piece and four sweaters being kept moth proof.

Fulton County Miners Strike
CANTON, Ill. (AP)—United Electric Coal Co. workers struck at the Buckheart Mine today in what was described as a dispute over work rules. All are members of United Mine Workers Local 7455.

Union spokesmen said the walk-out stemmed from disagreement with the superintendents on each of three shifts, but there were no details.

Other United Electric mines in Fulton county were not affected.

HYDROELECTRIC PROJECT
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Power Commission today set a hearing to begin here Jan. 31 on a proposal by Union Electric Co., St. Louis, to build a pumped-storage hydroelectric project in Missouri.

OFF AND RUNNING by John I. Day
Backward in Name Only

This is the "off-season" for most race tracks. The horses are wintering, if not vacationing, in Florida, California and Louisiana. But there is no off-season for Ak-Sar-Ben at Omaha, Nebraska. The only backward thing about Ak-Sar-Ben is the spelling of its name.

Under the dynamic general management of J. J. "Jake" Isaacson, one-time newsboy who quit a job as sports editor of the Omaha Daily News to become impresario for the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, Omaha's 75-year-old civic organization, there is always something doing at Ak-Sar-Ben. Founded in 1885 "for public service and not for profit," Ak-Sar-Ben provides more than 200 annual college scholarships, thousands of dollars

Ike Considers Farewell Talk To The Nation

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower will not deliver personally his final State of the Union message to Congress on Jan. 12. The White House also gave dates for two other presidential messages, the budget Jan. 16 and the economic report Jan. 18.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Eisenhower is seriously considering a farewell radio and TV talk before he leaves office Jan. 20.

NIU Fraternity Censured For Liquor Party

DE KALB, Ill. (AP)—Northern Illinois University officials have revoked the charter of a fraternity for sponsoring a party at which liquor allegedly was served to students.

The action Tuesday dissolved Eta Chapter of Kappa Sigma Kappa, a fraternity with fewer than 20 members. In addition, three students were expelled from the school and 13 others placed on social probation.

The fraternity chapter is the second to be kicked off the campus in less than 10 months.

The latest action stemmed from a party given by Eta chapter Nov. 18 to attract pledges from among new students. One of the prospective pledges, Philip Pastorelli, 18, of 5878 Forest Glen, Chicago, was arrested by De Kalb police after the party and charged with accepting liquor and disorderly conduct. He was fined a total of $75 and costs.

C. Milton Pike, dean of men at the university, who investigated the affair, Tuesday expelled Pastorelli, a freshman, Ross A. Johnson, 4812 Bryon, Downers Grove, a junior, and Roger Simpson, 8143 Karlov, Skokie, a senior.

Johnson and Simpson are members of the fraternity. Pike said they helped arrange the party.

Three other fraternity members were placed on social probation for the remainder of their stay at the university. Ten guests at the party were placed on social probation until January 1962.

In March, last year, the NIU chapter of Pi Kappa Phi was dissolved by university officials after four members were killed in a highway collision while they were driving home from a fraternity party held in Rochelle. University officials said liquor was served at the party.

Suggests Public Transportation In St. L. Area
ST. LOUIS (AP)—A New York engineering firm recommended today public ownership of a unified St. Louis metropolitan area mass transportation system through the Bi-State Development Agency.

A preliminary feasibility report by W. C. Gilman and Co. said Bi-State is the only agency which can provide a single mass transportation service for St. Louis city and county, as well as St. Clair and Madison counties in Illinois.

"Such a system if created through such an agency as Bi-State with maximum tax relief would generate sufficient net earnings to finance the purchase of existing transit properties provided those facilities could be secured at reasonable prices," the report said.

Steels Set Pace In Lively Trade

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels were pacemakers in a brisk stock market rally early this afternoon. Trading was active.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 1.10 at 220.50 with industrials up 1.30, rails up .70 and utilities up .70.

The top steelmakers rose 1 or 2 points. Rail rose fractions to a point. Aircraft-missile stocks were up from fractions to more than a point. Utilities, with American Telephone rebounding more than a point, were generally higher.

The crisis in Laos and the break of U.S. diplomatic relations with Cuba were background factors tending to increase interest in stocks such as steels and rails which benefit from increased military activity.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 3.05 at 613.30. Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds declined. Trading was light.

Chicago Grains Firm And Active

CHICAGO (AP)—The sharp run-up of soybean prices Tuesday brought out fairly active profit selling today at weaker prices but the grains maintained a steady to firm range.

In brisk early dealings on the Board of Trade, May wheat was bid up as much as eight cents from the previous close, but it quickly settled back. However, it held gains of about two cents thereafter.

The pressure in soybeans was steady but by no means general and while prices were down a cent or more on all nearby months they still held most of the advance from Tuesday's trade.

The support for grains was ascribed to some uneasiness among traders about international developments.

Shortly before noon, wheat was 2 1/4 cents a bushel higher, March $2.10 1/4; corn 1-1/4 higher, March $1.11 1/4; oats 3/4 higher, March 66 1/2; rye unchanged to 1/2 higher, March $1.18 1/2; soybeans 1 1/2-1 1/2 lower, January $2.34 1/2.

Westerners Lay Claim To National Grid Supremacy
PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Exuberant Westerners laid claim to national football supremacy for 1961 in Washington and the Pacific Coast Tuesday.

Washington's 17-7 victory over top-ranked Minnesota in the Rose Bowl Monday "raised the banner of Pacific Coast football to the highest notch on the nation's flagpole," wrote Harry Culver of the Los Angeles Herald-Express.

"We're No. 1," chanted Husky thousands in the bowl. Coach Jim Owens called the game a championship bout, "and if you win you get the title, don't you?"

Washington players echoed that. So did most of the West Coast writers.

"Post-season games theoretically have no bearing on the national championship but they'll always have a tough time trying to overlook the Rose Bowl results," wrote Sports Editor Sid Ziff of the Los Angeles Mirror.

Football writer Dick Cullum of the Minneapolis Tribune blamed the decline of the Big Ten football in the Rose Bowl on the conference's four-year-old plan of granting athletic scholarships primarily on the basis of need.

"Washington was a better team than any seen in the Big Ten last fall," he wrote. "Since most football people on the Pacific Coast think UCLA was at least the equal of Washington, we are compelled to fear that football out here is catching up with football in the Big Ten, or in fact has caught up with it."

Whether Washington deserves to be rated ahead of Minnesota, the matter will remain academic. The Gophers were placed No. 1 and Washington 6 in the final AP ranking.

Snead, Norman Clash Saturday In Senior Bowl

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Two of the nation's top passers, Norman Snead of Wake Forest and Dick Norman of Stanford, Tuesday apparently clinched starting roles for Saturday's Senior Bowl football game.

Snead quarterbacked what appeared to be South Coast Webb Ewbanks' No. 1 offensive unit in morning and afternoon drills. All-so working for the South for the signal-calling post were Howard Dyer of VMI and Tulane's Phil Nugent.

Norman did considerable passing for Coach Jim Howell's North crew. The Stanford star will share the quarterback post with Dick Hinver, who helped Washington to victory over Minnesota in Monday's Rose Bowl.

Snead had a pair of high-ranking receivers as targets in Georgia halfback Fred Brown, who caught 31 passes last season, and Bobby Crespinio of Mississippi, who pulled in 30 during the regular season and a couple more in Ole Miss' Sugar Bowl victory over Rice.

DUCATS READY FOR TITLE BOUT
NEW YORK (AP)—Ticket reservations will be accepted for the Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight March 13 at Miami Beach's Convention Hall. Feature Sports, Inc., said Tuesday.

Fumbert (Jack) Fugazy, executive director of FSI, said about 16,000 seats will be available at three prices—$20, $50 and $100. Tickets can be purchased by mail at either Convention Hall or FSI's New York headquarters at the Hotel Commodore.

Illinois Prep Teams Enter 1961 With AP Picking Collinsville 1st
SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Illinois high school basketball teams enter the new year with Collinsville still tabbed in The Associated Press poll as the team to beat for the state title.

The Southwestern school, undefeated in 10 starts, retained its top rating in the third weekly poll and East Rockford again was runner-up.

Centralia and Clinton scored the biggest advances while Chicago Marshall and Pinckneyville suffered the sharpest demotions, all of it a reflection of holiday tournament showings.

Centralia, winner of its own meet, moved up five notches to the No. 3 berth and Clinton, the Pontiac tournament champion, gained eight places to rank fourth.

Marshall, which lost in the Chicago public league tourney to Carle, tumbled from 3rd to 11th. Pinckneyville slid from 5th to 12th after bowing twice in the Centralia competition.

Ron Schart of Litchfield set three new records at the East St. Louis tourney as his 61 points set the tourney mark and his school record. His 20 field goals also set another tourney record at East St. Louis. Fred Curtis of Routt high set the tourney scoring record for one game at Waverly with 41 points against Auburn.

Several clubs lost their initial games of the season in the tourneys including Springfield, Schlarman (Danville), Pinckneyville, Beardstown, Farmington, Kincaid, Peoria Manual and Tuscola. Still unbeaten after the tourneys have been played include Clinton, Collinsville, Winchester, Pawnee, Bridgeport, East Rockford, Windsor, Lanphier (Springfield) and Prospect.

Tourney winners — Collinsville, Canton, Winchester, Prospect, Pawnee, Mason City, Quincy, Havana, Clinton, Peoria Spaulding, Centralia, Monmouth, Harrisburg, Flora, Charleston, Carrier Mills and North Chicago.

Second place winners — Springfield, Greenfield, Routt, Aledo, McLeansboro, Pittsfield, Western (Macomb), Peoria Limestone, Peoria Manual, Teutopolis, Johnston City, Cumberland and Grant.

Captain John Cruser was named the most valuable player of the tourney from Canton while Forman (Manito) had the best cheerleaders for the second straight year. John Black of Peoria Woodruff received the sportsman-ship award from Principal Dr. William Masters of Canton high. Canton boasts of Dick Brown, 6-4 center and high scorer of the team being a rugged rebounder; Denny VanMiddleworth, 6-2 forward, who scored three straight baskets from the side against Limestone in the first quarter of the title game; Captain John Cruser, 6-0 guard who can really hit from out- side and his lay up shot beat overtime; Brian Jones, 5-11 guard, is a fine shot and helps with the defense of the Adams coached club and forward John Maguire, 6-1, who was ineligible last year after transferring from St. Bede. Walt Jackson, 6-3 forward transfer from Danville, is a top rebounder and his finest showing of the year was against Woodruff with 7 for 7 from the field. Canton is unbeaten at home this season in five games against Pekin and Kewanee in scheduled games and the three tourney wins averaging 77 points per game. Canton gains the fine guard, John Malone, 6-3 lad, who will be eligible for the game at Limestone (Peoria) on January 24 in an Illinois conference game. He was a regular at Peoria Spaulding during his soph year and played at Canton last year part of the season.

Griffin (Springfield) wants to fill five open dates for the 1961-62 season. Forman (Manito) has installed new glass backboards in their gym last week. John Tuntias and Alvie Gebhardt of Peoria worked ten games in the Canton Holiday tourney and turned in an outstanding job. Ken Roll, former coach at Bismarck and Tuscola, is the frosh coach coach at Naperville high school. Bob Grove's Naperville Redskins won third place in Canton's Holiday tourney and ended Farmington's unbeaten string 67-66 before beating Woodruff 55-54. The "Farmers" of Farmington high won the consolation championship from Abingdon.

Players who didn't go fishing went swimming or relaxed on the beach in 70-degree sunshine.

It has been estimated there are four million sleepwalkers in the United States.

Report On Corcoran's FPC Dealings Called 'Whitewash'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four House Republicans Tuesday described a subcommittee staff report on Washington attorney Thomas G. Corcoran as a "shocking political whitewash."

The report had cleared Corcoran of trying to influence the Federal Power Commission in a gas pipeline case in 1959. But the Republicans said Corcoran's dealings with the FPC had been "obviously improper."

Corcoran, a Democrat, was a key White House staff member during the days of the New Deal. The Republicans made up the majority of the House Legislative Oversight subcommittee, which investigated the federal regulatory agencies.

Their statement deriding the staff report came in the form of a dissent to the subcommittee's final report, submitted Tuesday.

The subcommittee, headed by Rep. Owen Harris, D-Ark., drew nationwide attention with its hearings on TV quizzes, payola, and the alleged attempts of industrialist Bernard Goldfine to obtain favors from presidential assistant Sherman Adams.

"We consider the staff report unfair, unjustified and beneath the dignity of a congressional committee," the Republicans said.

"The majority and its staff," they continued, "have sought to exonerate one of Washington's best-known influence peddlers."

The Republicans signing the dissent were Reps. John B. Bennett of Michigan, William L. Springer of Illinois, Steven B. Derouin of New York and Samuel L. Devine of Ohio.

House Seats 2 Challenged Demos, Rejects Republican

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House voted Tuesday to seat as members two Democrats whose election had been challenged, but rejected similar action affecting a Republican.

Reps. Morgan Moulder, D-Mo., and Victor Wickersham, D-Okla., were seated on motion of Democratic Floor Leader John McCormack of Massachusetts.

George O. Chambers of Indiana, apparently elected as a Republican, was asked to stand aside until election results are determined by the House Administration Committee.

The House decided along party lines, 295 to 95, to refer the question to its Administration Committee.

Chambers was certified in Indiana as winner over Rep. J. Edward Roush, a Democrat who was seeking a second term, by 12 votes out of some 213,000 cast.

Roush contended that errors found in just one precinct by a special House Elections Committee showed him winner by two votes.

Chambers, an Anderson, Ind., lawyer, said he has not decided whether he will remain in Washington while the Administration Committee investigates the 5th District contest.

The issue of seating Moulder and Wickersham was settled by what appeared to be a straight party voice vote, although no roll call on the main question was taken.

Sampson, Inventor Of Rail Crossing Signals, Dies

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. (AP) — Harry C. Sampson, 70, who developed and patented automatic signals to protect railroad crossings, died Tuesday in his home.

Sampson was superintendent of signals for the Gulf, Mobile and Ohio Railroad from 1947, when it absorbed the old Chicago & Alton Railroad.

He developed the crossing protection devices as superintendent of signals and telegraphs for the Chicago and Alton, which he joined in 1909, the beginning of his railroad career.

The first major installation of the signals was in Lincoln, Ill., in 1938. The flashing red lights and gates are now in use throughout the United States and overseas.

Sampson was a member of the Association of American Railroads, serving for several years as chairman of its committee on grade crossing signals.

MINERAL PRODUCTION

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Illinois produced an estimated $500 million in basic mineral products in 1960, the Illinois Geological Survey announced Tuesday.

It was the 11th consecutive year that mineral production amounted to more than $500 million.

Oil was the leading mineral commodity with production of 77.8 million, an increase of $3 million over 1959 production.

Coal production was valued at $186 million, up $2 million from the 1959 value.

Coal and oil accounted for 72 percent of the total mineral production for 1960.

INDONESIA LIMITS LAND HOLDINGS

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — The government issued a regulation Tuesday limiting land holdings. Ceilings are imposed by a complicated system of calculating population and cultivated land area in various regions but each farmer is guaranteed at least two hectares, or about five acres.

CUBA SEEKS TRADE PACT WITH ROMANIA

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — A Cuban delegation has arrived in Bucharest for trade negotiations with Communist Romania, the Romanian Radio said Tuesday. The delegation is on a swing through Communist countries making deals to offset loss of U.S. trade.

RECOVER STOLEN COIN COLLECTION

MONTREAL (AP) — Police report recovery of a $75,000 coin collection stolen three weeks ago from the St. Johns home of Maurice Lorain. Some items are from the French Regime in Canada.

MORE AID URGED

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Catholic Association for International Peace has urged the United States to increase its aid to new African nations, not only through the United Nations, but also bilaterally on its own.

TRACTOR OPERATORS NEEDED

MOSCOW (AP) — The North Kazakhstan virgin land project needs 160,000 tractor and harvester operators, the official Soviet farm newspaper reports.

WELL EQUIPPED—Scotch Highlander cattle are well equipped to withstand the long cold winters. Long outer guard hairs cover a thick undercoating of hair through which rain, snow or cold cannot penetrate. These cattle roamed the mountains of Scotland since prehistoric times. Their meat is said to be well-marbled, fine flavored beef. This trio is part of the herd enjoying the Wisconsin winter at "Anne's Acres" near Wausau. (NEA Telephoto)

Service is the key to success in any business venture...

Service was the reason Arthur L. French and the other founders decided to open a state bank with moderate capital in 1911. Since then, as Farmers grew and moved from the south side of the square to its present location, service has always been foremost in the minds of men who guided its destiny. In recent years Farmers has been the first to provide its customers with many of the latest and modern banking services... Jury Decides Waverly Man Can Be Tried SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—A Sangamon County Circuit Court jury Tuesday found a Waverly area resident, charged with incest, is not feeble minded after hearing evidence to the contrary by two Springfield psychiatrists.

Drs. Paul M. Cadwell and Milton C. Baumann testified that Isadore Stone, R. R. Waverly, has the intelligence of an 81 year-old child, according to Asst. State's Atty. Charles Hammond.

They said their examinations indicated Stone is unable to consult effectively with his counsel and does not understand the nature of the proceedings against him, Hammond said.

Stone's intelligence quotient was set at 62, or eight points below that at which a person may be committed to Lincoln State Hospital, according to the state's attorney's office.

The jury deliberated for 40 minutes after the hearing before Judge Samuel O. Smith. No date was set for Stone's trial on the incest charge.

Morgan County Grand Jury To Report Jan. 25

Judge Creel Douglass at a Morgan county circuit court session Wednesday ordered a grand jury drawn and its members to report Jan. 25. The grand jury was called at request of State's Attorney Charles J. Ryan, who said evidence in several cases will be presented.

Facing probable grand jury action are three men arrested after the fatal shooting of William Jackson at the Moss Walton Legion House, several weeks ago.

The court Wednesday received a plea of guilty from Clyde Tendick, Jr., charged with petty larceny. The defendant asked to be admitted to probation. The charge was originally burglary.

The state's attorney said Tendick, who is 16 years old, would be referred to the Illinois Youth Commission should probation be denied.

Elzie R. Bown of Jacksonville and Woodson stands atop the Mount of Olives overlooking Jerusalem, one of the numerous stops he made while on a 17-day tour of The Holy Lands during the Christmas season. Mr. Bown arrived home Tuesday from the interesting, inspirational trip. The pilgrimage to the Holy Lands was led by Rev. Father Potvin of Georgetown University, Washington, D.C.

During the flight from Cairo to Jerusalem, Mr. Bown was privileged to sit in the cockpit of the jet plane, from which he got a long range view of the Dead Sea, Suez Canal, and Mt. Sinai.

Rammelkamp Helps Yugoslavia Fight Mysterious Disease

By DON DUNHAM
Medical Writer For The Cleveland Plain Dealer

(Editor's Note: Dr. Charles H. Rammelkamp is a son of Mrs. C. H. Rammelkamp of Jacksonville.)

A Cleveland scientist believes he can find the cause of a strange and baffling type of kidney disease from which 30,000 to 60,000 persons are dying in a small area of Yugoslavia.

It is a chronic type of kidney disease. Whatever causes it has been there a long time.

In World War I, 60,000 U.S. troops in this area were hospitalized with kidney ailments, and it is rumored that German troops in this same area were stricken in World War II.

The Communist Party, which runs the country, does not seem very concerned about it or its victims. But Dr. Jacob Gaon called Dr. Charles H. Rammelkamp Jr., chief of medicine at Metropolitan General Hospital and professor of medicine at Western Reserve University.

Has Studied Nephritis
Dr. Rammelkamp has done extensive studies in rheumatic fever and nephritis, a kidney disease. Both are caused by a streptococcus germ.

Last year Dr. Rammelkamp had Dr. Gaon do a bacteriological survey in the area. Dr. Gaon found the germ that causes nephritis. Dr. Rammelkamp received a $5000 fellowship from the U. S. Public Health Service to go to Geneva. With other funds, including his own, he went to Sarajevo.

Dr. Richard Krause, one of Dr. Rammelkamp's former students at WUR and now with the Rockefeller Institute in New York, accompanied him. They spent a week in Sarajevo just talking with people.

The World Health Organization provided an auto so the investigators could travel about the troubled area, from Belgrade to Bijeljina, about 75 square miles in the "bread basket" of Yugoslavia.

Radiation, uranium, viruses, streptococci, spirochetes and lead were suspected.

Area Is Farmland
The area is rich farmland. On one side of the Sava River, the Mississippi of the country, are plains and farms; on the other are mountains and streams. Hundreds of years ago the Turks built many mills on the streams, using the water power to run grinders.

The farmers from the surrounding area took their corn to these mills to be ground.

Through the centuries the stones have worn and chipped. The holes should have been filled with melted alum. But some millers found it easier and cheaper to fill them with melted lead. Dr. Rammelkamp learned.

Although the victims of the kidney ailment had no symptoms of lead poisoning, lead is a cumulative poison and the slight lead pollution of the grain slowly took its toll among older residents.

Will Make Tests
Dr. Rammelkamp is sending Dr. Robert Griggs of his staff back in January. Dr. Griggs will take 45 persons from unaffected and affected villages. He will give them a drug which mobilizes lead accumulated in the body and eliminates it in the urine.

Dr. Griggs will send blood and samples back to the U. S. for tests. Dr. Rammelkamp is sure the tests will prove lead poisoning. If they do, Dr. Rammelkamp will direct local authorities on what to do.

"We will do the preliminary work for them but let them do the actual cleanup work themselves and get the credit for it," Dr. Rammelkamp said.

"The Rockefeller Foundation was fascinated with the project and was eager to support it. But the National Heart Institute phoned at the right moment and volunteered to do it without a proposal even being before them. They will finance it."

Dr. Irving Sunshine of the Institute of Pathology and toxicologist on the staff of Dr. Samuel Gerber, county coroner, aided in planning the attack.

Nose Fractured, Eyes Blackened In Assault Here

An 18 year old Winchester youth's nose was broken and both eyes blackened in an assault that occurred about 9:30 o'clock Tuesday night, for which a 19 year old Jacksonville youth is under arrest, charged with aggravated assault.

The victim is Frank Long, part-time employee of an apple packing plant at Valley City.

Held under $1,000 bond as his alleged attacker is Don Lacey, 325 Yates street. The complaint was sworn out in Morgan county court.

Long's face was photographed in color by a professional photographer Wednesday at the request of State's Attorney Charles J. Ryan.

The Winchester youth told police he brought two girls from Winchester to this city in his car. Lacey was a passenger in the car for a time. An argument is said to have arisen as to whether the teen age girls were to be taken back to Winchester.

Long told officers that he was sitting in the car when Lacey struck him in the face, and that he lost consciousness for a time. Long said he was still in the car when he regained consciousness.

The victim was taken to Passavant hospital for treatment and X-rays.

PONTIAC, Ill. (AP) — Livingston County grand jury Tuesday accused Richard Bright, 21, of Streator, of murdering Dean Jerde, 18, also of Streator, when he surprised Jerde in a trailer with Mrs. Bright.
